RE: United States v. Burgos-Hernandez et al.
22 Cr. 133 (JGK)

Dear Judge Koeltl:

I write on behalf of my client, Franklin Bello Jimenez, in the above-captioned matter, to respectfully request that the Court modify Mr. Bello Jimenez's bail conditions to allow him to travel to Boston, MA to visit his mother on Saturday, October 15. Pretrial services consents to this request; the government does not object.

On February 17, 2022, Magistrate Judge Gabriel W. Gorenstein released Mr. Bello Jimenez on his own signature and imposed the following bail conditions: a $25,000 personal recognizance bond cosigned by two financially responsible persons; travel limited to the SDNY/EDNY; surrender all travel documents with no new applications; pretrial supervision as directed by pretrial services; maintain or seek employment; no contact with co-defendants except in the presence of counsel; no new loans or lines of credit without prior approval from pretrial services. Mr. Bello Jimenez's bail conditions were timely satisfied.

For the past eight months, Mr. Bello Jimenez has remained compliant with the conditions of release. On August 10, 2022, the Court granted Mr. Bello Jimenez a temporary bail modification to travel to visit his mother on Sunday, August 14. Mr. Bello Jimenez now seeks the Court's permission to travel to visit his mother this Saturday, October 15, at an address to be provided to pretrial. Pretrial services consents to this request; the government does not object.

Thank you for your consideration of this request.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/
